New Business:

Minutes of the February meeting were approved via email

Reviewed February Financial

Income was down by $6,433 and expenses were over budget by $6,341 for a loss of $12,774.

YTD we still have small surplus

We formed two subcommittees of the finance committee. The first subcommittee will review our financials to see if there is a way to consolidate any of the accounts. Abe Walston, Neale Turlington, and Dean Cobble will share this duty.

The second subcommittee will review our investment accounts and make sure that they are invested properly and are secure. Jack Homestead and John Copeland will share this duty.

Wilson Rogers has resigned from the finance committee to concentrate on the communications committee.

Old Business:

John Copeland reported that the QR code is ready to go live. There are some issues, but they are being worked out. John will get with John Earl to figure out the best way to roll it out.

The insurance quote we have been working on came in higher than what we currently have so we will maintain our account with George Chadwick Insurance Agency.

Rosselot Gift-This gift was announced to the congregation on March 12th. The session is taking the use of funds to their individual committees to see if we can come up with the best way to structure these funds between capital improvements and the church vision.

Williams Gift-The session will figure out the best way to utilize this gift.

We have agreed to move our meeting to the 2nd Wednesday of each month at 4:00 so as to have ample time to get the minutes to the session. The next meeting will be April 12th at 4:00.

Dickson adjourned the meeting with prayer at 4:45.

Flag Status: Completed

Good morning again, Delores! Below are the minutes from the CE meeting this past Sunday. John, please review this submission and let me know if there is anything I should change. Thanks so much! Scottie

"The CE Committee had a called meeting by John Earl on Sunday, February 12, 2023. This called meeting took the place of the regularly scheduled CE meeting for February. The meeting's intent was to address the question "Little Chapel can be of great help in creating a ministry to our family/child(ren) by" This question was given previously, by John, to the families of young children in our church, in hopes that they would come to the meeting prepared to give their thoughts and answers to the question.

In attendance at the meeting were John Earl, Scottie Anderson, Mark & Lydia Labocetta, Stephanie & Jordan Davis, Jim Alexander, Mackenzie Sawyer and Erin Crouse. Many ideas were brainstormed and I list them here in the order that they were mentioned:

- offer a service for teacher workdays (would help build membership?)
- make the beach service kid friendly
- offer a "date night" for parents
- offer a service for children on Saturday mornings
- offer a program like Kindermusic
- take advantage of being on the beach...offer a water camp
- offer a summer program on weekdays
- offer more structure and consistency in programs
- offer a monthly theme for Sunday School
- offer a music school once a week
- have children acolyte
- have children be readers during worship
- update the children's classrooms
- offer a program during the middle of the week that includes the whole family for a time span of 10 weeks
- work with the town of Wrightsville Beach to combine programs

The meeting concluded with John thanking the group for coming and offering their thoughts and suggestions."

Christian Education Meeting Minutes 3/12/23

Members present: Scottie Anderson, Delores Dyer, Margie Annis

Anchors Aweigh: In an effort to offer some form of programming for the younger children I (Scottie Anderson) organized Anchors Aweigh, on a trial basis, for the first 3 months of 2023. This was to see what kind of interest we might get from our young families and which age groups would be interested. We had 8 children attend in January and 7 children in February, ranging in ages from 3 years old to 7 years old. The children had fun completing two mission projects and at the same time, enjoying fellowship with each other.

The last Anchors Aweigh program for ages 3 through 1st grade will be held on Sunday, March 26, 2023 from 4-6 pm. Since there is a symphony performance at LCOB we would like for Anchors Aweigh to be a destination event for fun and fellowship. We discussed several ideas such as going to WB Park (we don't want to worry about weather), going to the trampoline facility, Flip 'n Fly (too expensive and they are booked), so we decided to possibly go bowling at Cardinal Lanes on Shipyard Blvd. This culminating activity is to express thanks to the children who have participated for the past 3 months.

Children's programming: John and I met with some of the parents of the young children on February 12th at which time a great deal of brainstorming was done on how we can get programming started at LCOB that will draw younger families to our church. John picked three of the brainstorming ideas for us to develop as prospective programs. Those ideas were a week day Anchors Aweigh program, a Music program and a Teachers' Workday program. John and I developed summations of what the programs COULD look like, including the What, Who, Where, When and Why of each program. John emailed the ideas to the parents and we will meet with the parents again on Sunday, March 19, 2023 to review these program proposals and to get more input from the parents.

Easter Egg Hunt: We will be having the annual Easter egg hunt during the 10:30 worship time on Easter Sunday. Christine Kennedy did this last year and it worked well. I will ask our middle school youth if they would hide the eggs (around the Matthew House) and help with the hunt. Instead of asking for candy donations, CE will purchase candy for the eggs.

Vacation Bible School: We began to make plans for Vacation Bible School. We propose having it in the mornings from 9-12 pm, either the week of June 19th or the week of June 26th. Sue Laakman has asked Zoe to plan the music for the week and Zoe has agreed.

- As a side note, Margie Annis has agreed to help with CE "things"...thank you Margie!!

Worship Committee Meeting

March 13, 2023

The Worship Committee of the Little Chapel on the Boardwalk (PCUSA) met at 9:00 a.m. in the Conference Room on Monday, March 13, 2023.

Members present were: Sherri Alexander, Elder and acting moderator; Janice Allen, Sherry Lovette, Beckey Smith, Barbara Williams, Carole Coble, Judy Gibson, Jane Millard and John Earl, Interim Pastor.

Absent were: Terry Paterson, David Hienzman, Brett Blizzard and Wilda Moore.

Sherri Alexander opened with a devotional and prayer.

Due to an oversight on the acting moderator's part, February 13, 2023's meeting minutes were not read. We will read and approve them, as well as the March 13, 2023 minutes, at our next stated meeting on May 8, 2023.

Sherry Lovette reported that preparing and serving communion for the coming months was all in order, including Maundy Thursday, and that she is not having issues with Elders available to serve communion. She reported that during communion preparation going forward that the elements would be increased as some of the trays ran out on Sunday, March 5, 2023.

Sherry also reported that she and Carole Coble had secured Usher Captains through April.

Jane Millard reported that flower donations do seem to be trending upwards from what we saw at the beginning of 2023. We have some Sundays in the near future that don't currently have flower donations and we will use the artificial arrangements on those Sundays. Jane has volunteered to create two additional artificial arrangements. Jane has experience in flower arranging and her offer comes with great appreciation. She will submit the cost of the flowers/supplies to the worship committee for reimbursement. Jane is writing a concise informational statement for the Church bulletin making congregants aware that they can share the cost of flowers between two people/families if they desire.

Judy Gibson reported that liturgists are scheduled through May. She does feel that opening up liturgists to members that are not ordained as an elder has been a positive approach to filling liturgists for the 10:30 service each Sunday and gives more members the opportunity to serve.

David Heinzman was not present to give a music update. Refer to Arise report and new business concerning Palm Sunday for references to music that were discussed during the meeting.

Carole Coble reported there was nothing to report for Funerals or weddings.

Janet O'Neil discussed that the count for Arise on February 26, 2023 was 42. The average is about that number and we are maintaining that. Paraments needed no discussion. We did discuss that the pews should always contain 1) Endowment Card 2) Offering Envelopes 3) Prayer request. At certain times of the year they would also contain a fourth item for Special Offering. These offerings come through the Mission Committee and Beckey Smith will update us when there is a special offering that should have notification in the pews. Janet will keep the pews checked for the items that should be in them each week. Meghan that has been leading the singing for Arise was reported to be a very positive influence for the Arise Service. Further discussion is needed with David Hienzman as to her continued availability, as well as funding.

Worship Committee results from the Time and Talent Fair were provided to all that needed those results. We discussed making an added effort to ask those that are new to the volunteer list in the various areas under Worship responsibility to serve in the area(s) that they have volunteered for. Sherri Alexander will review with Terry Paterson the volunteers that are new and Sherri will send Thank you notes from the Worship Committee to the new volunteers.

Palm Sunday was discussed, including the decision to process with palms and not to do the coats for 2023 as previously discussed. Sherri Alexander asked the committee to consider the congregants, that are able and desire, to process in waving palms at the beginning of the 10:30 service. This was agreed by general consensus and no one voiced against it. John Earl will meet with David Hienzman as to the music aspect of the procession and any choir participation. John will let Terry Paterson and Sherri Alexander know the final music component decisions. Jane Millard will obtain how many attended the 10:30 worship service for Palm Sunday in 2022 and make a determination as to how many palm fronds will be needed. Jane will place the order with Sweet Nectar and has indicated she can pick them up if they can't deliver them. Other members of the committee are willing to pick them up, if Jane needs assistance. Arise, under the direction of Janet O'Neil, will work with John Earl as to how they will do palms on Palm Sunday. If additional palms are needed, Janet will make Jane Millard aware.

The discussion of the sand dollars and what committee started that ministry was brought up by Sherri Alexander. Janice Allen was able to confirm that Membership (now Membership and Growth) started the ministry. A motion was made by Janet O'Neil and seconded by Carole Coble that the sand dollars should continue to be managed/maintained by the Membership and Growth Committee. Carole will reach out to Sue Lakkmann concerning the sand dollars. Worship Committee will continue, through the ushers, to hand out the sand dollars to first time visitors during the 10:30 service.

John Earl led the discussion as to the generous gift that has been given to LCOB. All committees are to prayerfully consider how these funds can best be used at LCOB for God's will and to support our Vision Statement. The session vote reflects that there will be a split between Capital Improvement and support of our Vision Statement. It is the responsibility of each member of Worship Committee to think, pray, and bring forth thoughts and ideas that will best serve God through Little Chapel on the Boardwalk. This is something that will require us all to step away from "self and our personal desires" and look wholly at LCOB and what God's will is for our ministry. Think and pray about what the challenge to us as the Worship Committee is as we seek to submit recommendations to Leadership. We will ask that a few days before our meeting on May 8, 2023 that each of you submit to Terry Paterson and Sherri Alexander your thoughts on how best to do God's will through this generous gift. We would like to have a list in writing prior to the May 2023 meeting in order to move through your thoughts in an orderly manner.

We will not have a Worship Committee meeting in April.

Addition to meeting notes as an added Worship Committee item: John Earl reached out to Terry Paterson and Sherri Alexander by e-mail on 3/14/23. The request, coming from Mary Jo Kohunsky, Clerk of Session, is to have in our monthly meeting minutes a recordation of attendance from the prior month for Arise/Beach Service and the 10:30 Service. We will begin this with the May meeting with both March and April numbers included. Delores should be able to supply us with these numbers each month. Arrangements will be made with her by Terry Paterson or Sherri Alexander on how to best receive these counts. This was not discussed during the meeting, but it is desired that the request be in these minutes so all are aware that this will become part of our monthly reports.

John Earl closed the meeting with prayer.
