Dear Little Chapel on the Boardwalk family,

If you were expecting to find Pastor Pat's message on this page – as it's been for quite a few months now - I'm sorry if you're disappointed.

Hopefully, by the time you (and Pat) read this, he will have recovered some from pneumonia. I know our prayers and well wishes, and maybe some of the medications his doctor has prescribed, and Marcia's watchful eye and TLC are all necessary ingredients to restore our Pastor to good health. And, don't forget the...

I actually offered to put something together for the front page of the newsletter knowing Pat needed rest; and besides, how tough could writing something actually be?

Suffice it to say, 'writer's block' is a very real thing. Rarely am I at a loss for words, but faced with a deadline and searching for just what to say has me stumped.

Some months ago, I sat with Pat for several hours interviewing him for a newsletter article. He told me his favorite author is Frederick Buechner, a retired Presbyterian minister who has authored more than 30 books. It's no surprise Pat has everything he's written.

So, I decided to explore a bit and I found a Buechner quote I suspect Pat just might like.

"... some moment happens in your life that you say yes right up to the roots of your hair, that makes it worth having been born just to have happen. laughing with somebody till the tears run down your cheeks. waking up to the first snow. being in bed with somebody you love... whether you thank god for such a moment or thank your lucky stars, it is a moment that is trying to open up your whole life. If you turn your back on such a moment and hurry along to business as usual, it may lose you the ball game. if you throw your arms around such a moment and hug it like crazy, it may save your soul."

— Frederick Buechner

If you read Buechner's quote only once, go back and read it again. It's simple yet very powerful. The simple things in life are often the best ones.

Thank you, Rev. Buechner, for expressing so eloquently a message I believe was worth sharing. And Pat, please get well soon.... this is hard work!

"Listen to your life. See it for the fathomless mystery it is. In the boredom and pain of it, no less than in the excitement and gladness: touch, taste, smell your way to the holy and hidden heart of it, because in the last analysis all moments are key moments, and life itself is grace."

— Frederick Buechner

SESSION MEETING

APRIL HIGHLIGHTS

Seven new members will be welcomed into our fellowship on Easter Sunday, April 21, 2019. This number includes one new member, Ella Grace Wadsworth, from our Confirmation Class for 2019. Session members met with these prospective new members on Tuesday, April 23, 2019 at 7:00 PM.

The Worship Committee has plans in place for services during Holy Week and on Easter Sunday.

Beach services begin on Sunday, May 5, 8:00 AM at access #4, Wrightsville Beach.

On Sunday, April 28, there will be one worship service, at 10:30 AM, with a covered dish luncheon to follow. We will be celebrating our unity as a congregation before the beach services begin.

The Christian Education Committee has plans in place for the Easter Egg Hunt, Saturday, April 20 at the church at 10:30 AM.

Property Committee reported that they are still waiting for a response from our insurance agency about our hurricane claim. Discussion and plans continue for placement of memorial pavers in front of the church along the boardwalk.

Finance Committee reported that they are analyzing our investment accounts. The financial numbers for 2019 look very positive.

Property Committee is planning to purchase a new trailer for transportation of sound and other necessary equipment to the beach for our beach services. Volunteers are needed to help with the transport and setup each week. Contact the church office.

The session is still reviewing options for dealing with security issues for the church, including activities on Sunday as well as during the week when the church is open.

The next Presbytery Meeting for the Eastern Community, June 15, 2019, will be held in Southport. Elder Beckey Smith will be the commissioner from LCOB.

The session approved plans for Pastor Pat to serve as commissioner from Presbytery of Coastal Carolina for meeting of General Assembly, June 25-July 1, 2022.

At the beginning of the April session meeting, Pastor Pat posed the following question for discussion by the group: "What is the purpose of LCOB at Wrightsville Beach and how do we accomplish that purpose?" Much discussion followed!

Church Women United

MAY FRIENDSHIP DAY CELEBRATION

The overall theme for the 2019 Church Women United celebration is, “The Time is Now!” based on John 4:23 – “But the time is coming – and is here!” This year’s May Friendship Day program, “Agree to Differ,” focuses on working together to address poverty in our community.

The event will be held Friday, May 3 at St. Stephen A.M.E. Church, 501 Red Cross Street. This is the annual luncheon meeting. Migrant worker health kits prepared by our members will be presented to the Telamon Corporation for distribution. We will also receive the annual collection of funds for the Fellowship of the Least Coin.

Registration is at 10:30 am. The worship service begins at 11 am followed by the luncheon. Cost for lunch is $5.00.

For tickets or additional information, please contact Jean Northrop, 686-5376.

Plan to join us for this enjoyable time of worship and Christian fellowship.

This month the series on Little Chapel's committees focuses on Food & Fellowship co-chaired by Barbara Tyndall and Karen Windham.

Q. If the worship committee, Pastor Pat, and the Directors on staff all work to provide spiritual food or nourishment for our soul and our minds; your committee's focus is on providing ....?

A. Fellowship opportunities while enjoying delicious food!

Q. Providing meals or arranging for potlucks seems pretty basic, but there's more to it than that, right?

A. Yes, preparing the menu, making sure kitchen and pantry have items needed. Preparing the meals obviously takes more time and planning, but even with potlucks, we need to plan on assisting in the kitchen and with the meal. To echo Karen's comment – we need to ensure everything needed for any meal is available.

Q. What's the link between food and fellowship?

A. As a lifelong Presbyterian, food and fellowship have always been linked and I've heard it said that Presbyterians love to eat! Enjoying a meal together gives church members an opportunity to get to know one another and build relationships. I believe these relationships make our church family stronger.

The link is also in the fellowship of sharing a meal together. From my view, to look out and see everyone enjoying their meal, their smiles and obvious love for one another.

Q. Tell us about the planning that goes on with your committee and other committees or groups within the church family.

A. It's meeting with the groups or individual and making a plan that meets their function. Any time another committee needs our assistance with planning a meal, we are happy to join with them. We have partnered most frequently with the membership committee for new member lunches.

We meet to determine what type of meal will be served, i.e., potluck, catered, combination of the two, and then plan the logistics of what we need to accomplish to deliver a delicious meal! We love being in the kitchen and are happy to do whatever needs to be done to promote fellowship while sharing a meal.

Q. If there are leftovers after meals, what becomes of them?

A. Unfortunately, Nourish NC and Good Shepherd do not take prepared food. We have shared food with others who are staying in the Matthew House. We will also pack meals for members that may not have been able to attend the meal and someone will deliver the food to them.

You may also see one of us walking around the fellowship hall after breakfast to see who may want leftovers! If we know a member has a fondness for a particular food, we will pack it up for them when we have leftovers.

Q. The many people who work behind the scenes, or in the kitchen before, during, and after a breakfast, luncheon, or evening meal always seem to be having a good time together...yet it's hard work. Can you elaborate? Can there ever be too many 'cooks' in the Little Chapel kitchen?

A. Never too many cooks! We enjoy working together. It's not hard work, there is time involved and this is great time spent together always!

I especially love being in the Little Chapel kitchen and while it is work, we do have fun, have great teamwork, and I think we all enjoy being a member of the kitchen crew!

Our team works hard and we are a “well-oiled machine” – especially at breakfast. The size of the kitchen is the only limitation on the number of “cooks in the kitchen!”

Q. Of all the meal-related events in the course of a year, is there one that's the easiest to pull off? How about one of the hardest or most difficult?

A. Breakfast is always the easiest as it is served about 10 times per year! It can become a little more challenging if we change up the menu and add, for example, pancakes!

Potlucks are easy as well since we primarily assist members with warming their food, help with set-up and clean-up.

Non breakfast meals for which we prepare all of the food is the most challenging and often, the most rewarding! A few years ago, under the direction of Carol Coble, we re-created the salad and appetizer bar from Trails End Restaurant.

Carol guided us from start to finish and she worked harder than any of us!

We were all worn out at the end of the meal, but also felt a great sense of accomplishment because the food was greatly enjoyed by everyone!

There are different prep levels but all fun and delicious!

Q. How many 'regulars' are there who prepare meals, serve, clean up, etc.? If someone wants to help, how do they make that known?

A. We have 7 full time regulars and 4 – 6 that are always available when needed. We welcome anyone that would like to join us – just tell us you want to help and we will certainly find a fun job for you!

Q. How early before Sunday breakfasts does the crew assemble? Does everyone have an assigned role to play?

A. The earliest crew members arrive between 6:30 and 7:00 am with the latest arriving before 8:30 am. Everyone does have a “loosely” assigned role – we all do what needs to be done to get the meal prepared. Most everyone has a role, but we do cross train positions.

Q. How do you include those, or what accommodations do you make for those who have specific dietary restrictions, food allergies, etc. when you plan meals?

A. Brenda Parker always ensures that those with gluten issues have something to eat. When we serve seafood, items prepared with peanuts, or other known allergens, we will label the food so that people are aware.

Q. Your turn. What didn't get asked you would like to communicate?

A. Everyone is always so appreciative of everything we do and we thank you all. One item that I would like to receive feedback on is: if you are currently not eating with us on breakfast Sunday, what could we offer that would entice you to join us for this time of fellowship?

It is a pleasure working on this committee! We work hard and have a wonderful time, but most of all it's great to serve a wonderful church family and friends! Everyone is always so appreciative of everything we do and we thank you all.

(Thanks to Karen & Barbara, the Food & Fellowship committee, and the many 'kitchen people' for serving our church family.)

MOTHER

If I could give you diamonds for each tear you cried for me.
if I could give you sapphires for each truth you've helped me see.

If I could give you rubies for the heartache that you've known

If I could give you pearls for the wisdom that you've shown.

Then you'll have a treasure, mother,
that would mount up to the skies
That would almost match
the sparkle in your kind and loving eyes.

But I have no pearls, no diamonds,
As I'm sure you're well aware
So I'll give you gifts more precious
My devotion, love and care.

MOTHER'S DAY OFERING

Little Chapel supports Children's Hope Alliance and Elderhaus on Mother's Day

By supporting Children's Hope Alliance (CHA), Little Chapel is giving hope to our children and families in North Carolina. CHA is the combination of Barium Springs and Grandfather Home for Children joining forces to serve children and their families by creating hope now and in the future.

Children's Hope Alliance transforms lives by focusing on three main areas: 1) healing the hurt for children, families, and individuals; 2) providing a safe place for children to live through group homes, therapeutic foster care, and adoption programs; 3) and encouraging a healthy start through educational, prevention, and developmental programs.

Children's Hope Alliance also provides different services in 61 counties in the state. Last year, more than 3,600 children and families across the state got the help they needed through the nearly 30 specialized programs offered at CHA.

The mission of Elderhaus of Wilmington is to promote and sustain the independence of seniors wishing to remain in the community. This is accomplished with the PACE PROGRAM (an all-inclusive care program for the elderly), ADULT DAY SERVICES, and HOME CARE SERVICES.

Thank you for supporting the young and elderly in our community.

PRESBYTERIAN KIDS' CONNECTION

Presbyterian Kids' Connection (PKC) enjoyed a presentation from Paws4People at our April get together. Puppy trainers, Emma and Kelly brought 12-week old puppies Pawley and Furman to visit.

The group enjoyed learning about the process these puppies go through in their training to become certified assistance dogs. We also enjoyed the puppy barks, licks, and tail wags Pawley and Furman gave us!

Please consider helping the children of PKC gather donations for Paws4People this month! The list of items to donate is posted on the kiosk in the narthex.

This nonprofit's mission is educating and empowering people to utilize Assistance Dogs to transform lives. <https://paws4people.org>

Thank you

It is Easter Sunday, and I am celebrating in the best way I am able at the moment. The Little Chapel Worship Service will be on my computer later today. For now, I am gazing out my window at the glories of spring and the promise of a new and glorious morn.

There are Purple Bearded Iris blooming in front of my barn, White blossoms on the Asian Pear Tree; and the Asparagus ferns are waving in the breeze.

The climbing Red Rose on the trellis outside my bedroom window is ablaze with color, while Amaryllis bulbs compete for attention.

The pair of Blue Birds are busy feeding the young ones peeping out of the box.

The beautiful male is (of course) pooping on my neighbor's red truck mirror. He is determined to get rid of that intruder he sees.

So far, I have counted eight Purple Martins. I can hear them overhead even with the windows closed.

One year ago, I fell and broke bones and had surgery and rehab. And Tuesday, I am having more surgery.

When I read the prayer list it feels like my name has become a permanent fixture. I am so grateful for all your prayers.

This is also my opportunity to thank everyone who has visited, called, sent me cards, and in general, cared about me. I've tried to be cheerful when anyone calls.

I think of all the things I have to be grateful for and make sure to look for new things daily. Just this morning the Page's sent me a picture of sunrise service at the beach. It is breath-taking.

One of the biggest blessings is the Sunday Worship Service online. It is personal. When David chimes the hour, I picture everyone in their places and listen for their voices when the congregation sings.

It is wonderful hearing the scripture read and everyone joining in for the responsive readings. I know which voices I am hearing in the choir and can tell when certain people are absent.

When the final chimes are rung, the low hum of people greeting and visiting is reassuring.

Thank you to everyone Involved in making this possible for those of us who cannot be there.

Love to you all,

Gerry

FOR BLANKETING OTHERS WITH LOVE

Dear friends at Little Chapel on the Boardwalk Presbyterian Church,

Thank you for blanketing your neighbors with love through your congregation's gift this year! As each month brings the potential of floods and other disasters, I find comfort knowing that congregations like yours protect families in need. Your generosity covers someone with warmth when their own blankets have mildewed after a storm, or when frigid nights keep them from a restful night's sleep.

As a token of our gratitude, we'll be issuing a mid-year report showing where CWS Blankets went for the first six months of 2019. We'll be sure to send you stories of how these blankets make a difference between now and then!

Again, thank you for showing the world what it means to be a neighbor!

*In memory of many,
In honor of all,
Thank you*

We say together

Let us commit to seek a more peaceful world, where all are valued and none are excluded,
Where justice and mercy flow like rivers
Where relationships are built on love and acceptance, not fear and intolerance
And where we all recognise our part in bringing that peace. Amen

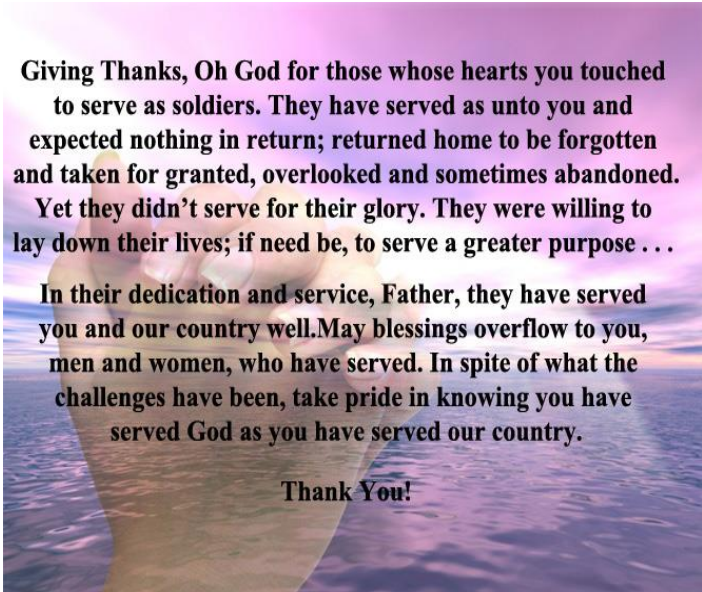

Our thanks to you for all you do
Defending our flag the red, white and blue
As Americans, we know what freedom means
The joy, the peace and the right to dream
Freedom we love but it is not free
The sacrifice is great and you give willingly
Our thoughts and prayers are with you today
As you fight for freedom so far away
May God keep you safe in all that you do
And bring you back home to those who love you

The Bible says it takes great love to give one's life for a friend.

To do the same for a stranger takes honor and courage to the end.

Giving Thanks, Oh God for those whose hearts you touched to serve as soldiers. They have served as unto you and expected nothing in return; returned home to be forgotten and taken for granted, overlooked and sometimes abandoned.
Yet they didn't serve for their glory. They were willing to lay down their lives; if need be, to serve a greater purpose . . .

In their dedication and service, Father, they have served you and our country well. May blessings overflow to you, men and women, who have served. In spite of what the challenges have been, take pride in knowing you have served God as you have served our country.

Thank You!
