Dear Pastors and Church Leaders,

Our Matthew House opened three years ago with many groups staying in it, while they are in Wilmington participating in various mission projects around the area. Due to the fact that most of these groups come during the spring and summer months, we are offering the Matthew House as a place for clergy and other church leaders to stay for retreats and/or meetings during the fall and winter. The Matthew House is an ideal location to gather for renewal, planning and fellowship, away from the everyday stresses of life in the church.

The house is available during the months of October through February, if it has not been booked by mission groups. You are welcome to stay for a day or for up to a maximum of four nights, any time Monday through Friday.

Please click on the links, details about Matthew House and Matthew House Registration for more information about fees and accommodations for Pastors. If you have any questions, contact Ann Martz, Matthew House Coordinator, at amartz5@ec.rr.com.

Blessings,

Rev. Pat Rabun
